JAESON FINN

Storyboard/Production Artist

Jaeson is a highly regarded, imaginative, professional illustrator, storyboard artist and concept designer who has worked in film, television, websites and comics. A great all rounder, he has worked for Universal, Warner Brothers and the BBC on features and award winning programmes as well as for small independents and advertising companies. Experience with a range of software packages, covering animation, digital video and computer generated imaging, Jaeson can provide fast-turnaround 3D pre-visualisation and animatics. Based in London, he is available for work worldwide.
